Department's circular telegrams May 25 and June 3 regarding United Nations Monetary and Financial Conference.

The Ministry of State indicates verbally that the following will probably compose the Cuban Delegation: Dr. Eduardo Montouliou, Minister of Finance, head of the delegation with Drs. Garcia Montes and Ramiro Guerra as delegates and the following as technical advisers: Miguel Perez; Eduardo Durruthy; Calixto Montouliou, all of the Ministry of Finance; Manuel Menocal, Professor of Fiscal Law, Habana University; Luis Machado (acting as representative for President Celect Grau) and Dr. Felipe Pazos, Commercial Attache of the Cuban Embassy in Washington. Irving Gordon of that Embassy will act as private secretary to Dr. Montouliou.

A-1313, June 17, 12:35 p. m.

Department's circular telegram June 3, 6 p.m. regarding the United Nations Monetary and Financial Conference.

The Minister of Finance, who is leaving June 18 for New York prior to attending the conference, confirms the makeup of the Cuban delegation transmitted in Embassy's telegram No. 574, June 13. I expect official notification shortly from Ministry of State. Ministry of Finance would appreciate ascertaining as soon as possible the date and approximate hour at which the special train leaves Washington for Bretton Woods and informs Embassy that the office requirements of the Cuban delegation can be limited to one room.

I plan to issue air priorities from Habana to Washington for all the members of the Cuban delegation except Dr. Pazos and Irving Gordon, who are already in Washington.

The Minister of Finance informs the Embassy that he is making a trip to the United States and hopes to fit this in with representing Cuba at the Monetary and Financial Conference of the United Nations beginning July 1. However, in order to make his plans, the Minister would appreciate knowing approximately how long the conference will last.
