

X

Luxford

Oct. 8 - Treas.

Because of the extreme uncertainties of the immediate postwar period and recognizing that rates established during such period will of necessity be tentative in many instances, during the first three years the Fund shall recognize that there will be need for many changes and adjustments and shall resolve cases of reasonable doubt in favor of the country requesting changes in rates.