

Each member undertakes that at the request of any other member it will consult the latter through the Fund concerning the obligations (relations) of persons within its territories under any exchange regulations maintained by the latter under authority of this Agreement.