

HOUSE BANKING AND CURRENCY COMMITTEE

Brent Spence, Chairman, (D) Fifth Congressional District, from Ft. Thomas, Ky.; attended BrettonWoods Conference and is for the agreement. Straight internationalist record.

Paul Brown, (D) Tenth District, from Elberton, Georgia. Member of the Methodist church; for the Monetary Agreement. Straight internationalist record.

Wright Patman, (D) First District, from Texarcana, Texas. Member of the First Baptist church. A Mason. Member of the American Legion and VFW. For the Agreement. Straight international record.

William B. Barry (D) Fourth District, from St. Albans, Queens County, New York. Member of the Catholic church. Isolationist record. Non-committal on Agreement. Pressure groups in his District--United Electrical Workers, Transport Workers Union, Americans United, and his church group.

A. S. Mike Moroney, (D) Fifth District, from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Straight internationalist record. For the Agreement. (Has oil interests.)

John H. Folger, (D) Fifth District, from Mt. Airy, N.C. Straight internationalist record. For the Agreement. Pressure groups in his District--Food and tobacco groups.

H. Streett Baldwin, (D) Second District, from Hydes, Maryland. Hasn't been in Congress a sufficient length of time to determine his international policy. Pressure groups--church groups. Non-committal on Agreement.

Brooks Hays, (D) Fifth District, Little Rock, Arkansas. Member of American Legion, Lions Club and Masons. Member of Baptist church. Straight internationalist record. For the Agreement.

Daniel K. Hoch, (D) Thirteenth District, from Reading, Pa. Member of Lutheran Church. Good internationalist record in last session of Congress. For the Agreement.

George E. Outland, (D) Eleventh District, from Santa Barbara, Calif. Straight internationalist record. For the Agreement.

William R. Thom, (D) Sixth District, from Canton, Ohio. Member of the First Evangelical and reformed church. New in Congress. For the Agreement. Pressure groups--steel.

Peter A. Quinn, (D) 26th District, ~~from Gadsden, Alabama~~ ~~Member of the~~ from New York City. New Congressman. Made pronouncements for the Monetary Agreement.

Chase Going Woodhouse, (D) Second District, from New London, Connecticut. New Congresswoman. For international cooperation and the Monetary Agreement.

John J. Riley, (D) Second District, from Sumter, S.C. New Congressman. No record on international policy or the Monetary Agreement.

Albert Rains, (D) 5th District, from Gadsden, Alabama. New Congressman. Made pronouncements for international cooperation and for the Monetary Agreement.

Merlin Hull, (P) 9th District; from Black River Falls, Wisconsin. Straight isolationist record. Non-committal on Agreement. Pressure group--Farmers Union & UAW

Jesse P. Wolcott, (R) 7th District from Port Huron, Michigan. Member of the Lions Club VFW, American Legion, Masons and K of P. Attended Bretton Woods Conference. Straight isolationist record. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau, small banks, UAW, Great Lake Steamship Lines.

Fred L. Crawford, (R) 8th District, from Saginaw, Michigan. Straight isolationist record. opposed to Monetary Agreement. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau, UAW, small banks.

Ralph A. Gamble, (R) 28th District, from Larchmont, N.Y. Internationalist record. Non-committal on Agreement. Pressure groups--Americans United, League of Women Voters.

Jessie Sumner, (R) 18th District, Milford, Illinois. Was formerly employed by Chase National Bank of New York. Straight isolationist record. Opposed to Agreement. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau.

Frederick C. Smith, (R) 8th District, from Marion, OHIO. Straight isolationist record. Opposed to Agreement. Has own monetary theories. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau and small banks.

John C. Kunkel, (R) 8th District, Harrisburg, Pa. Internationalist record in 78th Congress. Non-committal on Monetary Agreement. Pressure groups--steel, small banks, Pennsylvania Bankers Association, Farm Bureau.

Henry O. Talle, (R) 2nd District, from Decorah, Iowa. Mixed internationalist record. Non-committal on agreement. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau.

Frank L. Sundstrom, (R) 11th District, from East Orange, N.J. Fair internationalist record. Reported to be opposed to agreement. Pressure groups--church groups, United Electrical Workers.

Clarence E. Kilburn, (R) 34th District, Malone, N.Y. President Peoples Trust Co., of Malone, N.Y. Fair internationalist record. Non-committal on agreement. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau.

Howard H. Buffett, (R) 2nd District, from Omaha, Nebraska. Straight isolationist; opposed to Agreement. Pressure groups--Farm Bureau.

D. Emmert Brumbaugh, (R) 22nd District, Claysburg, Pa. Vice-President of the 1st Nat'l Bank, Claysburg, Pa. Partner in the Queen Lumber Co., Claysburg, Pa. Member of the Executive Board of Independent Bankers Assn. Not sufficient votes in last Congress to determine international policy. Non-committal on Agreement.

Copied 4/12/55