the aggregate eligible votes shall be considered elected. When six persons are not elected on the ~~first~~ initial balloting, a second balloting shall be held in which the person receiving the lowest number of votes shall be ineligible for election and in which there shall vote only those governors who vote for a person not elected and these governors all or part of whose votes for a person elected are deemed to have raised the votes cast for such person above seventeen per cent of the aggregate eligible votes. In determining whether any part of the votes cast by a governor raised the total of any person above seventeen per cent, there shall be considered as not forming part of the excess the votes of the governor casting the largest number of votes for such person, then the votes of the governor casting the next largest number, and so on until the total reaches seventeen per cent. Any governor whose votes are partly not in excess and partly in excess shall be eligible to vote in the second balloting only to the extent of the votes in excess. If enough additional persons are not elected on the second balloting to bring to six the total number each of whom has ~~not~~ received at least sixteen per cent of the aggregate eligible votes, further ballots shall be taken on the same principles until six such persons have been elected, provided that after five persons are elected the sixth may be elected by a simple majority of the remaining votes and shall be deemed to have been elected by all such votes.

(c) Each governor who is automatically an Executive Director shall be entitled to cast the number of votes allotted under Section 3 of this Article (J.S.VII, 2) to the country which he represents. Each elected Executive Director shall be entitled to cast the number of votes to which the governors who elected him would be entitled. A member whose election is due in part to his having received a portion of the votes of a particular governor shall be entitled to vote only those votes of such governor which contributed to his election. When the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 2 of this Article are applicable to a vote on any question ~~the~~ the votes to which an Executive Director would otherwise be entitled shall be increased or decreased proportionately. The General Manager shall have no vote.

(d) The Executive Directors may appoint such committees as they deem advisable. Membership of such committees need not be limited to governors and alternates.
