

JUN 8 1944

Bankers to Offer World Money Plan

By the United Press.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A. L. I. Wiggins, president of the American Bankers Assn., and a group of the country's leading bankers, including Edward Brown, president of the First National Bank, Chicago, and chairman of the Federal Advisory Council, will confer with Dr. Harry D. White and other high Treasury officials today to insert some private banking views into the makeup of the international monetary plan.

Divided opinions have been expressed by the country's leading bankers on the stabilization plan and the World Bank, which are to be discussed next month at an international meeting at Bretton Woods, N. H.

President Roosevelt has not yet named the American delegation to the international conference, but fiscal experts expect Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr., to head the American group, with Mr. Brown representing the bankers.

Others scheduled to attend the meeting today include W. Randolph Burgess, president National City Bank of New York; W. L. Hemingway, president Mercantile Commerce Trust Co., St. Louis, and former president of the ABA; Dr. Harold Stonier, executive manager ABA; Leon Frizier, president First National Bank, New York; Charles Spencer, president First National Bank, Boston; Frank Kent, director Bankers Trust Co., New York, and John Riddle, chief economist Bankers Trust Co.