

JONES LEGAL FORMS ANNOTATED

Excerpts from Employment contracts.

If the salesman shall at any time be incapacitated by illness or otherwise from performing his duties as such for _____ consecutive months, this contract to be void at the option of the company, or if he shall in the option of the board of directors be or become in any way unfit, either morally or physically, to act as salesman, the company may by _____ calendar months' notice in writing put an end to this agreement, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained.

 and agrees to respect and observe the conditions imposed by the constitution, by-laws and scale of prices of the second party, copies of which are hereunto attached and made a part of this contract.