

FRANK MITCHELL FARRIS

I. IDENTITY IN BANKING COMMUNITY

Early Banking Associations

State Bank and Trust Company, Nashville, Tennessee, 1912-1915
Cumberland Valley National Bank, 1915-1921
American National Bank, 1925-1927

Management Positions with Banks

Third National Bank, Nashville, Tennessee - President and Director
Third National Company, Nashville - President and Director

Affiliations with Banking Associations

American Bankers Association - Member of Economic Policy
Commission

II. INDUSTRIAL AFFILIATION

Farris Hardwood Lumber Company - Director

III. OPPOSED TO EXTENSION OF PRICE FIXING AND RATIONING INTO POSTWAR PERIOD

According to a statement of Farris published in March, 1944 he is opposed to price fixing and rationing lasting into the postwar period. He further stated that a considerable doubt existed as to whether or not the advantages of price fixing and rationing during the war period are not more than off-set by the many disadvantages that now exist.