

H. R. TEMPLETON

I. IDENTITY IN BANKING COMMUNITY

Management Position with Bank

Cleveland Trust Company, Cleveland, Ohio (19th largest bank and trust company in the country) - Vice President and Member of Executive Committee

Affiliations with Banking Associations

American Bankers Association - late 1944, elected President of Savings Division; Member of Administrative Committee

II. IDENTITY IN INDUSTRIAL CIRCLES

National Steel Barrel Co. - President and Director
Cornell Securities Corporation, Cleveland - President and Director
Mill Creek Gas & Oil Co., Clarion, Pa. - Treasurer and Director

III. CALLED TREASURY INTEREST RATE ON U. S. SAVINGS CERTIFICATES UNFAIR TO PRIVATE BANKS

In 1924, in the discussion of the suspension of the U. S. Treasury's sale of savings certificates, he stated that the higher rate of interest on these savings certificates had brought forth the charge of unfair competition from banks in the Northwest.