Mr. Luxford

Miss Richardson

Hemingway was definitely present at a meeting of the American Bankers Association in New York, July 22, 1943 at which Messrs. Bernstein and Goldenweiser spoke and at a meeting of the Investment Bankers Association at Rye, New York on June 3, 1944 at which Mr. White spoke. He was on the list sent by Burgess to White of those who would attend the meeting of the Foreign Exchange Committee of the American Bankers Association in the Treasury on June 8, 1944. However, since he has a special pass (not issued to casual visitors) the reception desk has no record of whether he actually came.

Here is a list of meetings on the Fund and Bank which members of the American Bankers Association, the Association of Reserve City Bankers and the Bankers Association for Foreign Trade attended with the names of the members of these associations who attended or were supposed to attend these meetings:

According to the stenographic report Hemingway was present at the meeting.

Meeting of the Foreign Exchange Committee of the American Bankers Association in the Treasury (Room 218) on June 8, 1944. Mr. Burgess on May 31, 1944 gave Mr. White the following list of those who would attend.

Robert M. Hanes	Robert V. Fleming
W. L. Hemingway	J. H. Riddle
Leonard Ayres	Tom K. Smith
E. K. Brown	Fred I. Kent
Charles Spencer	J. C. Traphagen
Leon Fraser	W. Randolph Burgess
Clarence Hunter	Harold Stonier

(12)

The reception desk has a record that the following came in that day:

Leonard Ayres	George Roberts
J. H. Riddle	Fred I. Kent

The following have blue passes and therefore we have no record:

W. L. Hemingway	Harold Stonier
E. E. Brown	W. Randolph Burgess
Charles Spencer	Robert V. Fleming
Tom K. Smith

Leon Fraser, Clarence Hunter and Robert Hanes may also have passes but we haven't been able to check.
