

Hedges On Bretton Woods

BOSTON, March 27.—John C. Folger, president of the Investment Bankers Association of America, demanded here today that Congress adopt the Bretton Woods proposal for an international bank but attacked Administration insistence upon the acceptance of the currency fund.

Folger maintained that lend-lease and the export-import bank, both exclusively U. S. agencies, appear to be enough. He suggested the Bretton Woods bank proposition be tried as an experiment.