Subject: Timing of Executive Board Consideration of the 1983 Article IV
Consultation with Seychelles

Some Executive Directors have informally inquired whether Board consideration of the Article IV consultation with Seychelles--the only item on the agenda for Friday, October 14--could conveniently be postponed until the next scheduled Board meeting. Mr. Prowse has indicated that his Seychelles authorities would be content with proceeding with Board consideration as scheduled inasmuch as October 14 is the final date for such consideration under the three-month rule. However, in the interest of efficiency of the Board's work, Mr. Prowse and his Seychelles authorities would be willing to accept postponement until Monday, October 24, the next scheduled Board meeting, which already has on its agenda Ghana - stand-by review.

In the absence of objection by the close of business today, Wednesday, October 12, Board consideration of the Article IV consultation with Seychelles would be taken up on Monday, October 24.
