October 13, 1983

To: Members of the Executive Board

From: The Secretary

Subject: Kenya - Timing of Executive Board Consideration of the Review under the Stand-By Arrangement

In the attached memorandum, Mr. Sangare is requesting a waiver of the customary four-week circulation period for the staff report on the Review Under the Stand-by Arrangement with Kenya (EBS/83/219, 10/6/83) in order that it could be placed on the agenda for October 24, 1983.

In the absence of objection by the close of business on Friday, October 14, Board consideration of the Review Under Stand-By Arrangement with Kenya would be scheduled on Monday, October 24, 1983.

TO : The Secretary

DATE: October 11, 1983

FROM : N'Faly Sangare

SUBJECT : Kenya - Review of Stand-by Arrangement;
Waiver of minimum circulation period

The Paper on the Review of Stand-by Arrangement with Kenya has been circulated to Executive Directors on October 6, 1983. Although the review was completed in August, activities related to the Annual Meetings delayed the issue of the Paper and the Kenya authorities have therefore so far been unable to make the purchase which, according to the arrangement, would have been due at the end of September 1983.

I should be grateful if Executive Directors would agree to consider the Paper on Monday October 24, so that if approved, Kenya can draw at the end of October, 1983.
