EBD/83/208

August 9, 1983

To: Members of the Executive Board

From: The Acting Secretary

Subject: Grenada - Staff Report for the 1983 Article IV Consultation and Request for Extended Arrangement

In the following memorandum, Mr. Casey requests that the Board take up the discussion of the 1983 Article IV consultation with Grenada and its request for an extended arrangement (EBS/83/164, 8/9/83) on Wednesday, August 24. Any comments on the proposed scheduling should reach the Secretary not later than Monday, August 22. If the consensus is favorable to the request, the subject will be scheduled accordingly; otherwise, the subject will be taken up on a date to be announced.

My understanding of Directors' views at the Board meeting on Friday, August 5 was that, if the paper on Grenada was issued that day, they would be prepared to discuss the matter on Wednesday, August 24.

This has not proved possible; the paper was issued today. I hope, however, that Directors would still agree to discuss the paper on August 24 although, regrettably, this implies only 15 days' notice.
