EBD/83/245

September 23, 1983

To: Members of the Executive Board
From: The Secretary
Subject: Morocco - Release of Information

On September 16, 1983 the Executive Board discussed and approved Morocco's request for stand-by arrangement (EBS/83/178, 8/19/83). At the time, Executive Directors were informed by the staff that an informal meeting of potential aid donors for Morocco would be held in Washington during the period of the Annual Meetings. Invitations have been issued to the governments of Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, the United Kingdom, and the United States to attend such a meeting on Wednesday, September 28. The World Bank is closely cooperating in the organization of this meeting.

To facilitate discussions at this meeting, it is proposed to make available to participants in the meeting, after any necessary editing, copies of the staff report on Morocco's request for stand-by arrangement (EBS/83/178, 8/19/83); Mr. Kabbaj is in agreement with this proposal. If no Executive Director objects by noon on Tuesday, September 27, 1983, Executive Board approval will be assumed and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
