Subject: Indonesia - Request for Technical Assistance

Bank Indonesia has requested technical assistance in the design and mechanics of new monetary policy instruments. It is proposed to comply with this request by sending a staff mission consisting of Mr. V. Sundararajan, Advisor, Mr. T. Balino, Senior Economist, and a secretary, all of the Central Banking Department, together with a consultant, a former Alternate Executive Director, Mr. Ricardo H. Arriazu, to Jakarta for about four weeks beginning November 23, 1983.

In the absence of a request for discussion by an Executive Director by noon on Thursday, October 27, 1983, the proposal will be deemed to have been approved by the Executive Board and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
