Subject: Organizational Change and N-12 Notification

The Special Financial Supervisory Issues Section in the Immediate Office of the Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department is being organized into a division. The creation of the division is needed to manage the increasing complexity and volume of work on anti-money laundering, offshore financial centers, and combating the financing of terrorism.

Work involved in this initiative will be an ongoing Fund responsibility and resources for long-term work are being discussed in the context of the FY 2003 budget. In order to implement this initiative immediately, additional resources are being redeployed for work undertaken during this fiscal year.

In connection with this change in the Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department, I wish to inform the Executive Board of the following reassignment, effective January 31, 2002:

- Mr. R. Barry Johnston, currently Advisor, Immediate Office, Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department, to the position of Division Chief, Special Financial Supervisory Issues Division, Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department.
