Subject: Organizational Change Under Rule N-12 in the External Relations Department

In accordance with Rule N-12, I wish to inform the Executive Board of the following organizational change in the External Relations Department (EXR), effective May 2, 2011.

EXR has reorganized the External Website Section to form the External Website Division. A brief description of the main responsibilities of the division is as follows:

Division	Responsibilities
External Website	The External Website Division of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) manages the IMF's external website. Its major responsibilities include: ensuring that the IMF website is an up-to-date, user-friendly, and effective tool for disseminating IMF information, publications, and other material to the public in multiple languages; ensuring that the variety of material posted on the website, originating from all parts of the Fund and prepared in a variety of forms, is organized and classified appropriately, and presented consistently; working with TGS to ensure that the website takes full advantage of latest technology; and leveraging new communications technology to deliver Fund messages to external audiences.
