Subject: Guyana - Request for Technical Assistance

The authorities of Guyana have requested technical assistance to advise them on methods and instruments to freeze the current excess liquidity of the banking system that would be consistent with the planned deregulation of the economy. It is proposed to comply with this request by sending an advisory mission comprising Mr. C.-J. Lindgren (Head), Mr. R. B. Johnston and Miss Moira Cowan, Secretary (all from CBD) to Georgetown for about ten days beginning on February 2, 1989.

In the absence of a request for discussion by an Executive Director by noon on Thursday, January 19, 1989, the proposal will be deemed to have been approved by the Executive Board and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
