To: Members of the Executive Board

From: The Secretary

Subject: Hungary - Request for Technical Assistance

The Hungarian authorities have requested assistance to review the recent reforms in the structure of the banking system and in the regulatory and monetary control framework, and analyze the scope for further reforms to improve competition and efficiency in the financial system. It is proposed to comply with this request by sending a mission comprising Mr. V. Sundararajan (head), Division Chief (CBD), Mr. Tomás Baliño, Senior Economist (CBD), Mr. L. G. Manison, Senior Economist (EUR), and Ms. Lucia Yepez, Secretary (CBD). The mission will be in Hungary for about two weeks from October 5, 1987.

In the absence of a request for discussion by an Executive Director prior to the close of business on Tuesday, September 29, 1987, the proposal will be deemed to have been approved by the Executive Board and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
