To: Members of the Executive Board

From: The Secretary

Subject: Bolivia - Request for Technical Assistance

A request has been received from the President of the Central Bank of Bolivia for technical assistance to examine the financial sector measures proposed under various facilities of the IMF and the IBRD, and to design a plan for the preparation of comprehensive financial sector legislation to regulate financial institutions, to establish a Super-intendency of Banks, and to introduce a Deposit Insurance Scheme.

It is proposed to comply with this request by sending a staff mission consisting of Mr. Vicente Galbis (Head), Advisor, and Mr. Lazaros Molho, Economist, both of CBD, for two weeks beginning March 16, 1987.

In the absence of a request for discussion by an Executive Director by noon on Friday, March 6, 1987, the proposal will be deemed to have been approved by the Executive Board and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
