Subject: Central American Monetary Council - Request for Technical Assistance

The Central American Monetary Council, which consists of the Governors of the five Central American central banks, has requested technical assistance in the research field in order to advise the staff of the Council's Secretariat on the preparation of a financial programming framework for the five member countries of the Council. It is proposed to comply with this request by sending Mr. Ernesto Gaba, from the Central Bank of the Republic of Argentina, for a period of one year to begin around August 1, 1986.

In the absence of a request for discussion by an Executive Director prior to the close of business on Friday, May 23, 1986, the the proposal will be deemed to have been approved by the Executive Board and it will be so recorded in the minutes of the next meeting thereafter.
